

SHERWOOD
Resorts and Hotels

OUR QUALITY POLICY

Sherwood Resorts & Hotels, under the leadership of its top management, is aware that in the acquiring of quality product and service, the topics of ISG, Environment and Food Safety are inseparable parts,

- To continue its works with its employees and suppliers in a team spirit,
- To enhance employee competence with effective trainings,
- To provide personnel contributions for the improvement of system by lateral-vertical communication,
- To exercise due diligence with a preventive approach in all our business processes, within the frame of conditions we are inherently subject to by national and international legislation and administrative conditions, to prevent environmental and occupational health-safety risks we may cause,
- To prepare and present world's and traditional Turkish Cuisine's distinguished tastes with our trained personnel in line with our guests' expectations, provided in accordance with hygienic measures and with ultimate safety,
- To comprehend guests' expectations ideally with provided effective quality management system and give a service even exceeding expectations.